January 2014

January 1st is always the Eighth Day of Christmas (maids-a-milking), a little more than half-way through the Christmas season. We'll continue singing the carols and we'll keep the decorations in the Sanctuary with all the candles lit through January 5th, when we celebrate the Feast of Epiphany.

I like the counter-cultural nature of the Christian Christmas season — how it is off-kilter from the non-Christian season. When the rest of the world is putting stuff away, we're keeping it going; which is not unlike our Christian faith!

The good news of God coming to Earth — God With Us — in Jesus — is that HE REMAINS even though we put our decorations away! The story continues after Christmas Eve and Day. More will happen — to Jesus and to us! And so we follow him, wherever he goes.... (And in a couple months that will be another journey, this time to the cross.)

The Christian journey is a blessed journey for two reasons I think. First, because we are following Jesus, whom we can trust and who has promised that his Holy Spirit will NEVER LEAVE US. And, secondly, because we make the journey TOGETHER!

I am keenly aware of these two "prongs" of the Christians life, as I prepare to go on Sabbatical on January 6th. Trusting in God — His guidance and presence — will no doubt increase as we make our way across the globe and to our temporary home in Cape Town, South Africa.

And our Community of Faith will shift dramatically! Martin Luther said that the "first church" in our lives is the family. Sophia and I will be our own little church as we quickly seek a new church home in Cape Town. The woman, Angie, who runs the Bed and Breakfast where we'll be living, is a Christian and member of the Hillsong Church (coordinating our mission work), so I anticipate an easy fellowship with her and her family. The Hillsong Church is "ginormous" and a style of worship that will be new to me; so we may want to find a smaller more traditional church nearby as well.... We'll see — it's all part of the journey!

And I invite you to keep these two aspects of our faith before you during the Sabbatical time, rephrased as two questions:

- How are you knowing/experiencing God's presence each day — in real ways — not necessarily big ways, but in real ways?
- How is your Life Together being strengthened/broadened/deepened?

Christina, your Sabbatical Pastor, will be a good help to you on this leg of your/our journey as the Church.

I will miss you each and all ~ God be with you 'til we meet again!

In Christ and His love,

Gail

Meeting Summary

Rev. Gail reported that Pastor Christina Williams and she had been finalizing plans for the sabbatical transition. A gift to the Endowments was accepted by the council. Bob Goudey noted that 90 pledges have been received so far. However, we are still about $25,000 short of the budgeted pledges. Committees gave brief summaries of their work. The Annual Meeting of the Congregation is scheduled for February 2, 2014.

Altar Flowers

2014 Altar Flowers—New “Arrangement”

Starting January 5, we have a new “arrangement” with Lisa Wilkins at Country Florist. We will have a “standing order” where she will deliver a center arrangement to the altar on Saturday every week. If you would like to dedicate flowers on a particular Sunday, you would: 1) Fill in your name and special dedication on the 2014 Flower Chart in the downstairs hall (so that Carol can include this in the bulletin); 2) send a check for $25 (made out to the UCC; memo: FLOWERS) to the church office. The church will pay the bill to Country Florist. You don't need to call Lisa at Country Florist (978-433-8974) unless you want to change the arrangement to two bouquets (she'll let you know the cost increase) or to request a particular color or design. Call Carol in the office with your questions (978-448-2091).

The Stewardship Team is inviting the entire congregation to take part in a small group book read this January/February. The book is Giving to God by Mark Allen Powell. - Tuesday evenings 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the Parlor
- Thursday evenings 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the Parish House

Members of the Stewardship team will be guiding the discussion and have study questions for us to read each week, as well as a video introduction to each session.

Books will be available at church beginning January 13th.

To sign-up, contact Carol Zaiatz (978-448-2091 or unioncc@uccgroton.org).

Sabbatical Update / Deacons / Bible Study

Pastor Miller's sabbatical begins January 6th! She and her daughter Sophia will spend two months in South Africa (two weeks on safari with her husband Mike and her mom; six weeks serving as missionaries with the Hillsong Africa Foundation). They will volunteer in an orphanage, a primary school, and a school for disabled children. Gail will return to us on April 6th.

While she is away, Christina Williams will serve as our Sabbatical Pastor. She will work part-time (20-25 hours/week) with primary responsibilities for worship/preaching, pastoral care, and two committees (Church Council and Deacons). (A detailed biography is available on our website in the November Courier.)

Christina will have office hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., as well as Sundays. She will have her own email address (christina@uccgroton.org) and will have the church cell phone that Gail currently uses (978-877-2177).

There is a Sabbatical booklet in the pews that contains all the details you could want to know about the sabbatical time — contacts for committees/ministries; emergency numbers; calendar of programs and activities offered, etc.

Please plan to be in church on January 5 to say "good-bye" to Gail and "welcome" to Christina.

Updates from the Deacons

We thank outgoing Deacons: Lisa Gambuzza, Bebe Goudey, Jim Brennan and Liz McQuillan for their dedicated and loving service to this committee and their church community. Special thanks to Kristin Anstead for filling in over the holiday season.

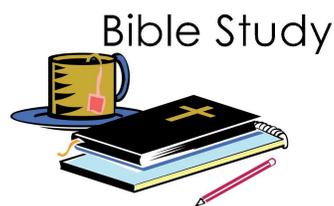

At the Annual Congregational Meeting on February 2, the Deacons will renew the conversation/question raised at the Stated Meeting last June around the language of the Trinity and returning the traditional "Father, Son and Holy Spirit" to our By-Laws.

Bible Study

Wednesday Evening Bible Study 7:30 p.m. in the Pastor's Office

Do you feel like Christmas came and went without spending time to think about the meaning of the season? Come join us on Wednesday evenings as we read from Luke. We'll discuss Mary's Magnificat, Zechariah's prophecies about his son John, and Jesus' birth. Due to the holidays, we will not meet until January 8th. Contact: Janet Kennedy

Thursday Morning Bible Study 10:00 a.m. at 26 Court Street

The New Year often begins with surprises and definitely new starts. Come join the Thursday Bible Study to spend time with some of the lesser known letters (Epistles) in the New Testament. As always we have good conversations that help bring the wisdom of Bible writers to today's world along with tea, coffee, and cookies. Contact: Marvin Caldwell ( )

Cookies 'N' Carols / Family Ministry / Missions

On Sunday afternoon, December 8th, 25 people (of all ages) sang and delivered 32 cookie plates.

It was a joyful experience, as we shared more than cookies and carols; we shared God's love!

A sincere thank you to the cookie bakers, singers and helpers who participated in this wonderful event. We made $305.00 toward the Youth Mission Trip this coming summer.
