FROM THE PASTOR

When I first read these words, I was both challenged and encouraged all at the same time!

On my morning run one day, I accidentally ran into a triathlon race. I could not get out of the race as I was overtaken by athletes from every side. Up until that moment, I thought I was running at a fast pace. It was only when I found myself in the middle of a pack of runners that I realized I was not running as fast or as smoothly as I thought. While in my own little world, I was doing great, but when I stepped into a bigger, faster, fitter world, I discovered that I had lots of room for improvement and development.

As Christians, it is crucial that we do not become lulled into a false sense of comfort, security or achievement. We must constantly ensure that we are pushing ahead, determined to lay hold of all Jesus has prepared for us. We must keep enlarging, placing ourselves in a world that is bigger than our own, so we can keep God's perspective. We may think we are doing great, but let's keep the Word as our mirror and measure to ensure we are always allowing ourselves to be transformed to the image of Jesus. (~Christine Caine)

This is a great word for the church — for OUR church. I wonder how much we (our church) have become lulled into a false sense of comfort, security or achievement. And I wonder this because one of the messages that came through loud and clear in the Congregational Inventory that the GPS Task Force conducted last year was that we are overwhelmingly satisfied with the church the way it is now.

Now, I know that that speaks to a measure of congregational health and stability that is good for us. But I also hope we won't be SO SATISFIED that we resist growing in new directions. Just as Christians should NEVER be satisfied with where they're at in their faith; so also the church should never become so comfortable with the way it is that we are not seeking out new ways of doing what we've always done, as well as looking for new opportunities to share Christ and change lives along the way. Including our own! We should always be moving, growing, learning, stretching...

We must keep enlarging, placing ourselves in a world that is bigger than our own, so we can keep God's perspective.

YES! Let's endeavor to do this! Let's keep God's perspective as the lens through which we see ourselves, our church, and the world. Let's hear God's word of blessing, "You are my beloved," and Christ's words of how to live faithful lives, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself."

Let's hear these words, take them to heart, and live them out each and every day.

With you on the journey,

Our Church Family

A fun way to contribute above and beyond your regular giving to the church; simply make a donation on (or around) your birthday in the amount of your age (Memo: Birthday Fund)! Did your kids receive birthday money from Grandma and Grandpa? Consider having them share with the church $5 or $10 or $15! Church News

March 25 Meeting Summary

Committees and ministries have been contemplating what the GPS Mission Statement Means to them. Next month they will be concentrating on “changing lives, sharing Christ.” On May 3, GPS will host a conversation after church.

The Youth Mission Trip Spaghetti Dinner raised approximately $1,300 and provided fellowship for all.

The PPRC is continuing their work on exploring a new review process based upon the book Completing the Circle.

On Tuesday, May 26, the entire congregation is invited to the Church Council Meeting; it will be an open forum on a topic to be determined at the April Church Council meeting.

If you, or someone you know, could benefit from the Stephen Ministry, please see Rev. Gail or Andrea McDonough.

Sunday, April 12 After Worship

Fellowship Hour is a wonderful time for everyone to have a chance to catch up with each other, including the children who love seeing their friends and making new ones. It's an important element in the life of our church.

On April 12, after worship, the Church Council, on behalf of the Congregation, will be sponsoring a special Fellowship Hour Brunch in honor of those who have served on the Kitchen Ministry over the past five years. We are also including in this special group four people who have organized buffets for Christmas Eve Services and Memorial Services. All of these people make us feel welcome and warm us up with hot coffee and treats week after week. For this we are very thankful.

Everyone is invited to this celebration — we hope you can join us! If you would like to assist in any way, please contact Bebe Goudey at _____ or by calling _____.

“I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ.”
First Corinthians 1:4

Church Spring Clean-up Day Saturday, May 9 (Rain Date May 16) 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

You are invited! Outdoor cleanup and raking will be our primary job. More hands make the work fun and go faster. Please bring a rake and tarp if you can—and show up anytime for whatever time you can give! If you have any questions, contact any member of the Buildings & Grounds Committee or Chris Sullivan (_____, _____). We appreciate your support.

Teachers Needed—Can You Help?

We need volunteers to spend one hour doing some of the most fulfilling work of the church—teaching our children about God's love. We still have openings on the calendar. Please sign up on the white-board in the hallway downstairs at church or email Carol Zaiatz in the Church Office (unioncc@uccgroton.org). Once signed up, Carol will send out an email the week before your class that gives instructions for the online system and how to access the curriculum for activities, etc.

Harvest Fair Saturday, October 3

- Spring Cleaning? Do you have children's clothing in clean and good condition? Do you have any books, CDs, DVDs, or VHS you would like to "clean out" and donate to the church for the fall fair? Boxes are available for you to bring them in now and clear up that space; there's no need to wait. Just put them in the boxes under the bulletin boards outside of Fellowship Hall.

 - Books: All kinds, we need a new supply (no textbooks please)

Stephen Ministry

We all know someone...

- Someone in crisis who doesn't know where to turn.
- Someone who is tense, upset, worn out — needing someone to talk with, someone to care.

You'd like to help. So would the Stephen Ministers here at our church. Here's what to do:

1. Listen and care for your friend in your own relationship together.
2. Ask your friend for permission to share his or her need with someone who can help. Be sure to tell your friend that all information will be kept confidential.
3. Once permission is given, talk to Pastor Gail Miller or Andrea McDonough (, or), leader of our Stephen Ministry.

We will take it from there! Let Stephen Ministry help during this trying time.

We all know someone...or maybe that "someone" is you.

Heifer International Annual Pancake Breakfast at Overlook Farm

March 14 was a cold, rainy morning, but 16 people ventured out to Overlook Farm in Rutland to enjoy a hearty breakfast followed by a guided tour of the farm to visit and ask questions about the animals and tour the Global Village. It was an opportunity to learn about Heifer International's efforts helping people obtain sustainable sources of food and income. (Thanks to Chip and Carly Detwiler for the great pictures!)

One Great Hour of Sharing and Church World Service

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the special collection for One Great Hour of Sharing — we received $660. This is one of four special mission offerings of the United Church of Christ, providing hope to people in more than 80 countries. The UCC works with international partners and, together, provide support to health, education, refugee, agricultural, and emergency relief initiatives. We also donated $317 to the Church World Service Blanket Drive in February. Thank you for your generosity!

Youth Mission Trip An Opportunity for All of Us to Serve

In late June, 19 missionaries (16 youths and 3 adults) from our congregation will travel to South Dakota to serve people living on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. Not able to go with them? Here's a way to feel a part of the trip without leaving Groton. Be a sponsor! Responsibilities include (not financial) meeting with one of the missionaries during coffee hour, writing a prayer and giving it to them before departure, and praying for that individual while they are on the mission trip. Interested? Contact Rev. Miller or Halsey Platt to set up a sponsorship.
