Be Inspired!

I keep a folder on my computer called "Poetry and Quotes," which I turn to from time-to-time to be encouraged and inspired. Here is a sampling....

To me the affirmation that God can be found outside the church has never seemed like much of a claim. The true wonder is that God can be found inside the church, among quirky, flawed, and broken people who may have little in common and yet are bound to one another.

~Martin Copenhaver

This life is not righteousness, but growth in righteousness, not health but healing, not being but becoming, not rest, but exercise. We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it; the process is not finished but it is going on. This is not the end but it is the road; all does not yet gleam in glory but all is being glorified.

~Martin Luther

*Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace.
And your best days are never so good that you are beyond the need of God's grace.*

~Jerry Bridges

*When you have no helpers, see all your helpers in God.
When you have many helpers, see God in all your helpers.
When you have nothing but God, see all in God;
when you have everything, see God in everything.
Under all conditions, stay thy heart only on the Lord.*

~Charles Haddon Spurgeon

To be followers of Christ is to be persons, whose lives, individually and corporately, are lived by a set of values radically different from those of the broken world, persons whose behaviors are shaped by the structures of a different order of being - the kingdom of God.

~M. Robert Mulholland, Jr.

*For the wonders that astound us,
For the truths that still confound us,
Most of all that love has found us,
Thanks be to God.*

~Fred Pratt Green (From the hymn, For the Fruit of All Creation)

July—September Meeting Summaries

The church finances (income and expenses) remain on budget.

The Fellowship Hall ceiling and the new piano were the big expenditures over the summer; these costs have been covered without borrowing and without dipping into the Endowment principal.

The budgeting process has begun based upon conservative increased pledging. On November 23 there will be an all-church meeting to discuss the budget for 2015. Still in question is the funding of capital projects.

The Missions Committee is in need of more members.

The GPS (God's Purpose Seekers) will hold an All-Church Meeting on October 29 to discuss the results of the survey taken in the spring and where they are in answering the question 'What is God asking us to do as a Church?'

Stated Meeting Summary (September 14)

The Endowment Committee reported that endowments are up 10% (up $391K from $351K) and that this trend is expected to continue through the 3rd quarter of next year.

The PPRC By-Law change was passed unanimously; the Mission and Purpose By-Law change (trinity language) was passed after much discussion.

Jean Armstrong was nominated and approved to be a member of the Christian Education committee.

New Members' Class

Sunday, October 26

12:00 – 3:00 p.m. (lunch provided) in Church Parlor

As soon as coffee hour winds down and the children's choirs are finished rehearsing, we will gather with Pastor Miller and a few Deacons to talk about the Christian faith, the church, and our church. Childcare and lunch will be provided. Attending this in no way obligates you to become a formal member. If, however, you are interested in membership, we will receive new members in worship in November. All are welcome to attend, whether you've been here two times or for two years. Please RSVP to the church office (978-448-2091 or unioncc@uccgroton.org) so that we can plan for food and babysitting.

November Courier

Please submit items for the November Courier by Wednesday, October 15, in order to be sure they get into this issue. All submissions to the Courier should be emailed to Carol Zaiatz at unioncc@uccgroton.org. Thank you.

Church Clean-up Day

Saturday, October 25 (Rain Date Nov. 1)

8:00 a.m.

If you have any questions, contact any member of the Buildings & Grounds Committee or Jeff Kubick (448-2589, jpkubick@gmail.com). We appreciate your support.

Stewardship

Stewardship Corner

Faithful Stewardship of Money

Everything we have comes from God.

This is a basic theme that the Stewardship Team has been focusing on for the last two years. As faithful stewards we have the privilege of managing 100% of all that God has provided. Our talents, family, relationships, career, health, faith and money all come from God.

As for money, God is not only interested in how we spend it. He is also interested in how we acquire it, how we manage it, and even how we regard it. He wants us to manage all these aspects of money in joyful God-pleasing ways.

How we spend and steward our money reflects our values, spiritual health, and determines what sort of person we will become. Too often people correlate joy with having lots of money. However, abundant and joyful lives are the result of stewarding money and everything else He has provided in God-pleasing ways.

As the Stewardship Team prepares for the 2015 Pledge Drive, we ask you to think and pray about these questions:

What truly brings me joy?

What have I done lately that is God-pleasing?

Given my past giving practices, what is the next step I need to take to become a “joyful and generous giver”?

Neighbors in Need Offering October 5 and 12

Neighbors in Need is a UCC special mission offering that supports works of justice and compassion throughout the United States. Two-thirds of the receipts are used by the UCC Justice and Witness Ministries, to be awarded by grant to various churches and organizations to help fund efforts for community service projects or advocacy efforts. One-third of the offering supports the UCC 's Council for American Indian Ministries.

In recognition of the church's annual support of Loaves & Fishes, we have received a Certificate of Appreciation as being a Silver Level Partner. We give on average $1,200 a year to support this valuable ministry.

Thank you to everyone who has supported the Backpack drive. Donations of backpacks and supplies may be returned to the designated bins at the church.

Serving in Mission

Serve the Homeless in Cambridge—Outdoor Church Monday, October 13 (Columbus Day Holiday)

Cambridge, Mass. - 10:00 – 2:00 (approximate times)

We will meet at church to make sandwiches and assemble sack lunches. We'll fill backpacks and head in to Alewife, park the cars and take the T to Central Square. Then we will walk a route organized by the Outdoor Church (a homeless ministry in Cambridge), handing out lunches, and extending the warmth of God's love. Children in upper elementary grades and their families are welcome to join Pastor Miller and Sophia. Questions: Gail (978-448-2091)

Youth Ministry

Join Us!

Middle School Youth and Families

How's it going? As you and your children navigate the treacherous waters of Middle School, how solid is your ship? Are you feeling tossed about? Need a lifeline — everyday, once a week, once a month? Nurturing, supportive, Christian friendships are crucial these days more than ever.

Facilitating these friendships for our kids here at church is extremely important, and will carry them more safely through these middle school years, into high school and beyond. So, to jumpstart these vital friendships and to begin to think more deeply about making a plan to support and serve these kids, you and your middle-schoolers are invited....

Dinner and Conversation Fun for the Kids

at the home of Karen and Jon Sjoberg

Saturday, October 18

5:30 p.m.

RSVP to Karen (kfortune@djasolutions.com)

Christian families have so much to offer — passion, compassion, joy, hope, strength.... But we don't have these things because we muster them up ourselves. We have these qualities in our lives because they are God-given; and we are called to nurture, support and grow them. Impossible to do alone — more than possible together! And much more fun....!

Join us on October 18th! Contact Gail or Pete Hnath with your thoughts about Middle School ministry in general and bring your questions/ideas to the dinner.
